

Mediation and peacemaking

By mastering the content of the discipline, students will have the opportunity to analyze modern practical mediation and peacekeeping activities, ways to resolve the conflict, that based on the latest sociological research. The lecturer will provide a comprehensive overview diverse types of modern conflicts and characterizes their social causes occurrence. The classes will reveal the features of the latest forms of mediation and peacekeeping activities. The lecturer will demonstrate the role of mediation and negotiation in the settlement and conflict transformation. Theoretical approaches to management will be considered conflict and its resolution through mediation and peacemaking. After mastering the discipline, the following learning outcomes must be demonstrated:

experience:

- To theoretical approaches to conflict management and its resolution through mediation and peacekeeping practices;
- To peculiarities of the mediation process and principles of negotiations;
- To ways of influencing individuals and organizations on policy;
- To principles of international policy;
- To peculiarities of application of mediation and peacekeeping in the sphere of to public relations;
- To structure of society, social stratification, classification of social groups;
- To ways to resolve social conflicts through peacekeeping practices;
- To on the peculiarities of the process of family mediation in the application of peacekeeping practices;
- To about the peculiarities and prospects of mediation and peacekeeping development in Ukraine;

facility :

- To carry out a critical analysis of the causes of the conflict and ways to resolve them;
- To critically evaluate the actions of the parties to the conflict;
- To find causal links between socio-political processes and conflicts occurring in society;
- To analyze modern practical mediation and peacekeeping activities;
- To formulate negotiating positions during conflict resolution;
- To formulate negotiating positions during conflict resolution;
- To apply peacekeeping interventions during the mediation procedure;
- To apply modern theories of myrrh creativity to the analysis of family, political and economic conflicts;